

Dear Student,

Would you like to share your vision of the future with world leaders such as Dominic Barton, Professor Niall Ferguson, Sigmar Gabriel, Christine Lagarde, or Jack Ma?

Discuss your ideas with the global elite, create an impact and enjoy an all-expenses-paid trip to Switzerland. Apply until 1 February 2019 and seize the opportunity to qualify as one of 200 “Leaders of Tomorrow” for the 49th St. Gallen Symposium by competing for the 31st St. Gallen Wings of Excellence Award with a prize money of CHF 20,000. Here some more highlights if you make it to St. Gallen:

- Meet 600 top managers, entrepreneurs, politicians and scientists from around the world
- Share your ideas with the symposium’s global audience
- Small and intimate gatherings with world leaders, exclusively for the Leaders of Tomorrow
- Meet 200 of the world’s brightest young minds and become member of a global community

The 49th St. Gallen Symposium will be held from 8–10 May 2019 at the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland, and is devoted to the theme “Capital for Purpose”.

Have a look at competition question and requirements at symposium.org/competition, register now to receive the latest news and tips, and hand in your essay no later than 1 February 2019. To get more insights check out www.youtube.com/user/StGallenSymposium and follow us on our Social Media channels.

We look forward to hopefully welcoming you to our forum in Switzerland in May 2019!

With best regards,

Your Leaders of Tomorrow Team
